Along with the completed cover sheet, please submit the following:

1. DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM
Emphasize how your program meets the criteria for teachers, curriculum and students outlined below. Please go no more than five typed double-spaced pages on 8½” x 11” paper.

An exemplary economics program should involve teachers who…
- demonstrate both scholarship and expertise in the curriculum they teach.
- demonstrate participation in all aspects of the implementation of this curriculum.
- apply sound instructional theory and practice implementing the program.

An exemplary economics program should include an economics curriculum that…
- is guided by clearly stated goals and objectives.
- is based on sound scholarship from the content of economics.
- relates appropriately to the age, maturity, interest and needs of the students.
- incorporates effective instructional strategies that engage students in the learning process.
- sets high expectations for students and uses a variety of systematic measures to evaluate student performance.

An exemplary economics program should engage students in …
- the critical examination of significant content, issues, and events from a variety of perspectives.
- focused decision making and activity participation in the school, community and world.
- understanding of democratic principles and the democratic process as they affect the economic system.

2. SUPPORT DOCUMENTS
Include the following support documents, the total not to exceed ten pages.
- letter of support from principal and/or supervisor
- letter for support from the person responsible for coordinating the program [with verification that the described program is being implemented]
- letter from a third educator
- letter from a student, parent or community individual or organization
- other appropriate support documents, including samples of work, newspaper articles, etc.

Only the materials outlined above will be considered: do not send additional materials.
