

2020 Economic Education Summer Institute for High School Teachers

Georgia
Council on Economic Education

Program Overview

Spend a week in Atlanta learning important economic concepts that include:

- opportunity cost
- specialization
- market/free enterprise system
- monetary and fiscal policy
- entrepreneurship
- international trade

The Economic Education Summer Institute for High School Teachers will increase participant knowledge of economic concepts and equip attendees with grade-appropriate lesson plans and ready-to-use classroom materials designed to help teach economics in innovative ways. Participants will also gain a greater understanding of the important role entrepreneurs play in a market/free enterprise system.

The program will be conducted by Georgia Council staff and master teacher consultants and will include visits to Atlanta-area businesses and financial institutions including:
