

Georgia Economics Teacher of the Year Nomination Form Cover Sheet

Name of Nominee:

School/System:

Home Address/Telephone:

Email address:

School Address/Telephone:

Present Position:

Name and Position of Person Making the Nomination:

The nominee should answer the following questions and attach them behind this cover sheet.

1. What are some examples of your creative approaches to the teaching of economics?
2. How have you motivated students and generated enthusiasm for the study of economics?
3. How have you demonstrated knowledge of economics appropriate for the setting in which you teach?
4. How have you demonstrated expertise in using a variety of appropriate methods, strategies and resources for teaching economics?
5. What other unique qualities or qualifications enhance your nomination?

Georgia Economics Teacher of the Year – Application Packet

Along with the cover sheet and answers to the above questions, please also submit the following:

- an essay describing the nominee's philosophy of teaching economics at the grade level or in the course(s) taught, including a view of students as producers, consumers, citizens, savers and investors.
- a resume or biographical essay outlining educational background and teaching experience.
- up to three supporting letters from representatives of appropriate groups (i.e., students, parents, fellow teachers, chairpersons, principals, curriculum directors, superintendents).

All materials should be submitted to:
Georgia Council on Economic Education
P. O. Box 1619
Atlanta, Georgia 30301-1619

Nomination packets must be received by December 15.